■ A SPECIAL GREETING: Town crier David Craner joined the new Seaton Welcome Team to greet the first Majestic Coach trip of the season. See page 4

SEATON Tennis Club will celebrate a £50,000 windfall by trying to break into the Guinness World Record book.

The club was awarded a £50,000 Sport England grant at the end of last year to help pay for a club house extension.

A planning application was submitted on April 4th and the £50,000 grant will be celebrated during an open day on Saturday, April 21st.

To spice up the occasion, at least one world record attempt will be made.

Club treasurer Richard Stubbs explained that the club has notified Guinness World Record it will have a go on up to three world records.

document evidence should a record be set.

The open day will be between 9.30am and 4pm at the club's Court Lane base.

Mr Stubbs hopes that work on the extension can start no later than September this year.

The work is estimated to go on for two months once started.

He said: "The extension will enable the club to upgrade the clubhouse facilities to make them comparable to the court facilities.

"We hope that this will encourage new members, in particular juniors."

About the open day, he said: "Adults and juniors, of all abilities, are welcome."

"It will be a fun day with plenty of action and a chance to meet, and play against, other club members."

"For beginners, there will be chance to try out

Pensioner calls for road hazard action

A PENSIONER is leading calls for safety measures to be introduced on a "dangerous" stretch of Seaton road.

Sidney Pember has been campaigning for a year to get signs or a bollard placed in front of a hazardous bay window which juts out into Harbour Road.

He has now taken his fight to councillors by writing to each member of Seaton Town Council.

The 75-year-old said the elderly, visually impaired and even a baby in their mother's arms have banged their heads on the protruding building, with one elderly lady cutting her head on the wall.

The town council is encouraging the county council – which deals with highways matters – to help find a solution to the problem, said Seaton Town Council's clerk

SPORTS DIGEST

Cup shoot-out blow for Millwey

MILLWEY Rise appeared to heading for their maiden county cup triumph as they led Morley Sports 2-0 in Thursday's Devon Intermediate Cup Final under the floodlights at Newton Abbott FC.

Nathan Wormesley put Rise ahead in the 22nd minute when he reacted quickest after a first-half 40-yard effort from Michael Knight came back off the crossbar. Top-scorer Sam Dibling doubled the lead midway through the second period with his 38th goal of the season.

But the Plymouth-based side battled back with a goal a minute later and snatched a 95th minute leveller in the last minute of injury time to force the extra half-hour.

But the teams couldn't be split and Morley claimed the trophy after winning the penalty shoot-out 3-1.

Honiton promoted

HONITON RFC 1st XV needed two points from their final two games of the season to ensure promotion to the Western Counties West Division.

And although they lost 27-21 at home to Teignmouth, they gathered enough points along the way to make sure of promotion and finishing up as runners-up in the league.

Baseball attack in Millwey street

TWO men, including a good samaritan, were allegedly attacked by a baseball bat-wielding man in an Axminster street.

The attack took place in broad daylight, and one man is believed to have suffered two broken arms.

Police officers were called to Bonners Causeway, Millwey Rise, at about 4.20 pm on Tuesday, April 10th.

The call was made by a member of the public, who said one man had been attacked.

At the scene, officers were told that a man had been attacked and had sought refuge in a house.

It is claimed that one man came out from the property and tried to help, but found himself under immediate attack.

The alleged attacker left the scene at some point and remained at large when Pulman's View spoke to police on Sunday, April 15th.

Sergeant Peter Trudgeon said that a suspect had been identified after a number of people had come forward to give statements, but police would like to hear from more people.

Sergeant Trudgeon also said it is believed the the original victim suffered two broken arms during the attack.

Police have spoken to him, but will take a full statement in the near future.

From the editor's chair We're up and running

THANK you to all those who have kindly sent emails and letters and have phoned in to tell us how much they like the new-look Pulman's View.

Publishing newspapers is not an exact science and there are always a few glitches when introducing new ideas and sections.

So we have made a few adjustments this week and we will be launching more new features as the weeks progress.

Our new nostalgia page, Mr Pulman's Days Gone By, which we will be publishing every other week, went down particularly well, especially with those who have been regular readers of Pulman's Weekly News, over the years.

One of them, Dick Sturch, has written a poem about the days he lived on the former Army Camp at Millwey Rise which we will be using next week.

We also got the seal of approval from Honiton mayor Vernon Whitlock who emailed me to say: "Congratulations on the new paper. It's fresh, readable and has plenty of Honiton news."

But it was not all plaudits. Margaret Newbery wrote in from Axminster disagreeing with my Editor At Large view that Axminster Guildhall is badly in need of a spruce-up.

She says she has known the building for 70 years and it has always been kept in good order. And she was "appalled" by my idea of putting out a few hanging baskets.

This week's edition has a regal feel about it as we publish some of your memories of the Queen's Coronation in 1953.

They make fascinating reading so please keep these coming in the run-up to Her Majesty's Diamond Jubilee in June.

More about that next week.

STOCKLAND

Armed police arrest axe man

A MAN has been arrested on suspicion of attempted murder and detained under The Mental Health Act after he allegedly attacked a police car with an axe.

Armed officers had to be deployed and negotiate with a 49 year-old local man during the incident near Stockland after two members of the public who said they had been threatened by a man.

It was claimed the man was carrying a large axe and the incident took place near the old telephone exchange at about 6.25am on Thursday, April 12th.

A police spokesperson said the suspect was located by a dog handler between Stockland and Horns Hayes Farm, but the police car came under attack, resulting in substantial damage to the windscreen.

Shortly afterwards, the suspect surrendered himself to police. No injuries were reported.

COLYTON

£3,000 for hospital

A COLYTON father has raised more than £3,000 for the children's hospital where his son will undergo several operations as a result of contracting meningitis as an infant.

Scaffolder Mike Challis, decided to tackle the notoriously tough Grizzly Run last month to raise the money, along with friends Laurie Forino and Jake Hayes, from Seaton.

Not an experienced runner, this was the first year Mr Challis had taken part in anything like the Grizzly Run and trained hard to complete the challenge in four hours and 18 minutes.

The money will go to the Bristol Royal Hospital for Children's, where Mike's son Jake, aged 7, has received treatment as a result of his illness.

HONITON

Second poll on community centre

A SECOND town poll will be held in Honiton over plans for a new community complex.

A date has been announced for the Honiton community centre town poll, the second poll to be held in as many years.

The first was held in 2010 where 662 people voted against plans for a new community complex; 257 people voted for it.

Those on the electoral roll of Honiton Parish can have their say on Thursday, May 10th - but it has been stressed that the poll result is not binding.

The precise wording of the poll question is: "Do you, the council tax payers of Honiton, wish the town council to proceed any further with the community centre project?"

Planning permission has been obtained and a formal name of the centre has already been announced, Beehive Community Complex.

Fundraising is under way for the complex, which will be built in Dowell Street car park, if it gets the green light.

But opinion in the town is divided and the project has been heavily debated.

SIDMOUTH

Recycling centre

PLANS for a £2million state of the art recycling centre on the outskirts of Sidmouth will go before town planners tomorrow (Wednesday).

It will be the first time the Devon County Council (DCC) planning proposals for the site to the north of Bowd will have been discussed by the town council.

The proposed development will be the size of around one and a half football pitches and be built on a 14,100 square metre area of green field site.

Confusion over who is responsible for 'dangerous' overhanging window

Tony Le Riche.

The walls overhang the public pavement by 18 inches and is around five feet above the ground.

The former builder's labourer said so many people had cracked their heads on the protrusion that he had nicknamed them Head-bangers Anonymous.

He said: "I want to expose what's been going on to put pressure on those people in charge, then they will know this bay window is dangerous."

"I think you'd be amazed at how many people who have bumped their heads and just rubbed it off."

"Something's got to be done especially for visually impaired people. I've been tackling it for a year now and it's almost worn me out."

"I need to expose what's not happening and why it's so dangerous. It was built in the days of horses and cart when it didn't matter but now more people are walking past it and it's become more dangerous."

Mr Le Riche said it had been discussed at a couple of planning committee meetings and the council was trying to get a meeting with the county council to get a sensible solution. He said: "The window has been there since it was built, it's nothing new. I think the original aim was to get it knocked out but my suggestion was to have something put under the window like a flower tub, or railing because that would achieve the same outcome."

Wendy Jane-Smith, who owns the building, said there was a question mark hanging over who was responsible for that section of the building.

She said: "It's a bit of an anomaly because I own the free hold but Boots the chemist own that part of the building on a 99 year lease."

"I've been to the council and rung Boots manager and they've not got back to me."

She added: "I would like it sorted out. If it's an obstacle it needs to be sorted out but I cannot do it on my own because that part is not mine to mess around with because of the lease."

"It's complicated, it's not as easy as knocking down a window because there are so many people involved in this."

Tennis club opens doors to public the game.

"For more experienced players, there will be the opportunity to try out sample rackets and have a knock against, and possibly gain a few tips from, some of the club's professional coaches."

"Prizes will be awarded in the Beat the Pro competition."

"Juniors will be able to see whether they like, and have ability, for the game by trying out mini tennis with rackets and balls supplied by the club."

"Prizes will also be awarded for junior competitions."

If the planning application is approved, the extension to the club house will provide a new club room, changing rooms, office and store.

■ A WARM WELCOME: Members of Seaton's Welcome Team will be greeting Majestic Tours Visitors on coaches from Teignmouth throughout the next few months

VISTORS arriving by coach to Seaton last weekend had an extra surprise when the town's new Welcome Team were joined by town crier David Craner to greet them.

Majestic Tours Coaches will be arriving twice a week to Seaton throughout April and May and the first arrival on Saturday was given an extra special warm welcome, as Mr Craner greeted passengers in full attire.

The Seaton Welcome Team, set up by the town council, is proving to be a great success and popular with visitors who have been offered help, advice and directions during their stay.

Leading the team, Councillor Gaynor Sedgwick said: "The Welcome Team have enjoyed meeting the ongoing ing coach visitors to Seaton and the town has really benefited from our work, with local businesses in particular pleased with the increased footfall in Seaton.

"We are also looking into improving the signage in the town, so it is much easier to navigate around Seaton and the town is much easier to find for tourists and visitors."

"We would really like to see some more volunteers join the team as we operate seven days a week and during the peak season it will be a busy time."

Anyone interested in volunteering for a couple of hours on a weekly or even monthly basis should contact Gaynor Sedgwick on 01297 625671.

Art society host annual exhibition

THE Seaton and District Art Society (SDAS) are hosting their annual exhibition at The Station Gallery at Pecorama for the third year running.

The Station Gallery is sited in the gardens of Pecorama in Beer, and for the duration of the exhibition from April 30th to May 5th admission fee to the gardens will be waived.

Work on display will be by both professional and recreational artists, ranging from watercolours, acrylics, mixed media, 3D sculptures and pottery, all for sale at competitive prices.

Exclusive greeting cards made by SDAS members will also be available to buy.

A member of the society for 26 years, Gilly Warner Mills has been painting since she was five years-old and her large acrylic/fabric canvas entitled "Tying the Ribbon" is one of the items that will take pride of place in the exhibition, alongside other works she is proud to display.

The exhibition will be open from 10.30am to 4.30pm every day. Anyone interested in joining the society should come along and speak to committee members.

Nothing to match the splendour of Coronation

■ I WAS 15 and living in Battersea, London, at the time of the Coronation. It had rained steadily all through the previous night but, when I set off with two older family members, the rain had stopped even though it was still very dull.

Our expectations of getting a good view of the procession were not high, as the radio had reported that hundreds of people had been camping overnight along the route. However, on arriving at The Strand we were surprised to see there were not the huge crowds envisaged as many people had gone home wet due to the pouring rain. With only two rows of people in front, we had an excellent view.

There was not a great deal to see while we waited for the procession to arrive and any small incident, such as the Air Force members – who were lining the route – receiving their lunch packs, evoked a great cheer.

A couple of young girls in the front row, huddled under their plastic macs, attempted to get the crowd singing without success until they sang the current pop song "How Much Is That Doggy In The Window?", when suddenly everyone around finished it off with a spontaneous 'woof, woof'.

From that moment the crowd seemed to bond and, when the shout went up of 'Here they come', we all surged forward for a better view. I will never forget the colour and splendour of the military bands and the marching servicemen from all parts of the Commonwealth.

Golden coach

We were entertained by a man in the crowd with a very loud voice encouraging the troops by calling out things such as 'Good old Sappers – you're better than the guards' and, to the Canadian Mounties: 'Get your man!' But the overriding memory I have is of the Queen in her golden coach. My eyes were drawn to her face and I honestly felt I had never seen anyone so beautiful. It was only after she was out of sight that I realised I had not taken in anything of the coach or even Prince Philip, who was one the far side.

By this time the rain was teeming down and everyone was getting soaked. We envied all the people in the coaches keeping dry, but there was one person who defied the rain – Queen Salote of Tonga, who waved gaily at the crowds in the pouring rain, even though there were many shouts of 'Put your umbrella up!' Although I have seen many processions since, I don't think there will ever be one to compare with the 1953 Coronation either in size or splendour.

Pamela Price, Seaton

Travelled to family gathering with our kids in a sidecar

■ AT the time of the Queen's Coronation in June 1953 we were living in Nottingham in a small village. There was great excitement when we learned that my in-laws had bought a television especially for the great event in those days very few people owned a television set.

On the morning we set off with our two children, our daughter who was just over a year old and our son was five-years-old. We had a tandem with a sidecar attached for the baby, and our son sat on a saddle on the crossbar in front of his dad. I of course sat at the back doing my stint of the pedalling.

When we got to the house it was already pretty well packed with other members of the family. We were thrilled to see the TV – a very small screen compared to today's sets – but to us it was wonderful, set in a lovely oak cabinet with doors. Nearer the time more neighbours came in until it was "standing room only". It was a wonderful experience, and to make it even better, my mother-in-law had laid on a good spread which we all appreciated as food was still rationed.

When we saw the crowds in London standing in the pouring rain we appreciated our family's gesture all the more.

Villagers watched from the school

■ MY father George Seward Sub, Postmaster of Smallridge Post Office, was one of the few in the village who owned a TV, which had a very small screen.

He took it to All Saints Village School, which only had two classrooms at the time, so the village people could watch the Coronation.

He also used to do the same with the cup final in his garage. Several of the village men came to watch, having brought cider and beer.

'The most wonderful spectacle I have seen'

■ DEVON Young Farmers were allocated three places at the Queen's Coronation on Tuesday, June 2nd 1953. I was a Honiton club member and my name was drawn!

So on Monday, we lucky Devonians went by train to a school at Chigwell, Essex. By 4 am we were up and away to our position opposite the Victoria Memorial.

The weather was erratic – cold with rain sometimes – but spirits were high, a newspaper's headline proclaiming "The crowning glory: Everest is climbed".

Crowds and policemen lined The Mall, now 20 people deep, some having camped overnight. Royalty and rulers left nearby Buckingham Palace followed by the Queen and Duke procession at 10.30am. The coronation service was relayed on speakers.

There followed the most wonderful spectacle that I shall ever see. We cheered as contingent upon colourful contingent marched by. Some were mounted and interspersed with bands. They came from the colonies, the commonwealth and our own services. The troops were said to be 10,000 strong in a two-mile column. Colonial rulers, prime ministers and royalty passed. Finally came her youthful majesty, golden coach and large procession.

The huge Queen of Tonga was also memorable. Beaming in the rain from her small open carriage. She dwarfed her male companion, dubbed as "her lunch" by Noel Coward!

A marvellous fireworks display followed.

Later I discovered that the Queen's Honorary Physicians and Surgeons had processed including Brigadier A.L. Crookford. Years earlier, by lamplight, he had attended my mother at my difficult breech delivery at home in Dalwood. A founder member of Axminster Medical Practice, he was already an esteemed young physician. Those of us who were his patients can bask still in reflected glory. He had been our doctor first!

Kids enjoy library fun day

A BOUNCE and rhyme session, Easter bonnet making, a book hunt and a storytime were part of an Easter fun day at Axminster Library on Wednesday, April 4th.

Library supervisor Penny Davis said: "Twenty one children attended the session with their parents."

A second session, with a rabbit theme, was held a week later.

Penny added: "We're running the sessions to try to encourage new families to come in and see how much the library has to offer both parents and children."

Students learn business basics

THE Fairwater Head Hotel, near Axminster, hosted pupils from Queen's College, Taunton, to help teach them about how the business works.

Seventeen pupils saw behind the scenes and were then able to quiz the hotel's owner, Adam Southwell, about how the business promotes itself and targets customers.

Mr Southwell said: "The students were with us for close to two hours and during that time they questioned me about our business, how we run it, what promotions work and what don't. "I was impressed with the level of questioning. They had clearly given a lot of thought to their questions, which impressed me greatly. I think there were one or two budding hotelier in the group."

Stars entertain packed hall

SHUTE Shining Stars, a group of children aged five years and over, entertained a packed Umborne Hall to raise money for Shute Primary School.

Almost £700 was raised from the glam rock night on Friday, March 23rd, produced by Sarah Ryan.

School governor Paddy Magrane said the total amount raised was £680, and added: "The evening provided a surprise in the form of a special guest appearance from headteacher Amanda Graham, who was joined on stage by teachers Amanda Churchill-Deam, Duncan Rae and Kate Alexander and former school administrator Jenny Hardiman.

"The five sung Abba hits to a very impressed – and blatantly awe-struck – audience."

Headteacher Amanda Graham commented: "Singing has given the children so much self-confidence.

"And thanks to them, Nick and Sarah Ryan, and everyone else who gave their time and energy, the evening was a hugely enjoyable community event."

Naps power doctor through challenge

SHORT power naps in wet grass helped an Axminster-based GP and his paddling partner to come through a gruelling canoeing challenge over Easter.

Devizes to Westminster International Canoe Race veterans Dr Barry McKenna and Gary Wakley were also pleased to report that they managed to avoid an aggressive swan, whose rap sheet included assault on another person the previous day.

Dr McKenna is a GP at Axminster Medical Practice and the dynamic duo took part in the race for the fourth time.

As previously reported, Dr McKenna is the chairman of Arc, which provides psychological therapies and support to people referred by the medical practice.

Apart from the challenge itself, Dr McKenna took part to raise money for Arc.

The race has been held annually during Easter weekend since 1948, and has 77 portages (where vessels are carried around an obstacle in water or overland between waterways).

Having had a few days to recover, Dr McKenna told Pulman's View: "On the Saturday morning the press were buzzing with the anticipation of Sir Steve Redgrave taking on the challenge.

"Our families, acting as our talented support crew, waved him off about an hour before Gary and I started.

"Our nerves grew as we had our boat and equipment scrutinised and our wrists tagged like racing pigeons.

"We put the kayak in the water, jumped in and paddled up to the start line where we had to come to a complete stop before being counted down to the start of paddling at 10.36am.

"You can choose your own start time to match your paddling speed to make sure you get to Teddington for high tide, which this year was 4.30am on Easter Sunday.

"The first stretch of the race is a non-stop 14.7 miles section which took us two and a half hours.

"You have to be careful at the portage (getting out to carry the boat around a lock) after this section as paddlers often cramp up and fall in - much to the amusement of spectators.

"The portages come thick and fast after this including six within one mile - the fitter crews (and us) just run the whole section with the boat on their shoulders while being fed by their support crew.

"Another challenge is the Bruce tunnel - 500m long, 20 ft wide and dark - you just focus on the light at the end.

"The canal section then continues for 54 miles until Reading.

"We got there just as it was getting dark and had avoided a special obstacle this year - an aggressive swan which had attacked and knocked unconscious a kayaker on the previous day.

"Usually, the 54 miles section along the River Thames compensates for tiredness with river flow but this year there was virtually no flow - but I had a torrent of support from ARC pushing me on.

"As the night progressed, crews retired (including Sir Steve Redgrave and four other Olympians), exhausted by paddling overnight in the cold.

"Some were hallucinating or disheartened by dropping behind schedule.

"We had to stop twice for a five-minute sleep, timed by my phone, and it is amazing how comfortable wet grass can be.

"We jumped up and got back in the boat and paddled on to Molesey - our last support stop where we would meet our indispensable support crews (our wives and children).

"They meet and feed us chocolate, fruit, tea, coke, hot food... they are excellent and we can be very fickle.

"As we approached Teddington at nearly 21 hours, my back muscles began to ache, so we limped down the tidal Thames for another two and a half hours until Big Ben and Westminster Bridge, with cheering crowds on it, came into view.

"What a feeling. I hope next year is a bit easier."

A few weeks before the race, Dr McKenna said: "Finishing under 24 hours is considered good, but we would like to go under 22 hours - but it will be tough."

They finished in a time of 23 hours and 43 minutes, in 26th place.

At the time of writing, fundraising stood at about £1,500.

Donations can be made online on just giving.com/barry-mckenna or at the surgery.

Bikers organise charity event

TWO friends formed the Axemen Bike Club in March 2011. Since then, it has attracted members and supporters and is currently looking to increase its membership.

It is a side patch club and a member of the Devon Alliance.

In December of last year, the club presented a rock night at The Axminster Inn in conjunction with Headway, the charity that works to improve life after brain injury.

Three rock bands kindly performed for free, where local townsfolk including the landlord and lady of the Axminster Inn gave generously in order for the club to make a donation of £412.79 to the charity.

Now it is time for the club to present its second rock night, again at the Axminster Inn, on Saturday, April 21st from 7pm.

There will be a barbecue and raffle, with prizes kindly donated from local businesses.

Bands to include: Reckless Princess, Bare Bones, Last Man in Europe and Snatch Tractor, who will all be waiving their fee in order to help the club raise money for the local branch of the Multiple Sclerosis. For more information, please contact Matt on 07799 175 006.

Honourary Freeman recognised for 'outstanding service' to village

Beer Parish Council News

BEER Parish Council hosted the annual parish meeting on Tuesday, April 3rd, where it was reported that local resident John Wells would be made an Honourary Freeman of Beer.

Mr Wells will be recognised for his "outstanding" service to the village over many years and a ceremony will be held at the Mariner's Hall on Saturday, May 5th to mark his achievement. Representatives from local community groups will receive invitations in due course.

It was also reported at the meeting that hedge plants have been planted along approximately half the length of the fence and in the triangular piece of land at the western end of Cowerslea Way. It is also planned to plant some indigenous trees, mostly fruit and nut between this path and New Beer Road. The footpath will have a final top surface laid when the weather is warmer and dry.

The charges for the Townsend Coach Park have been agreed for the next two years and they will be reviewed in April 2014. The fee for a car parking permit will be £200 including VAT per year. The permit will be for a numbered bay and will be transferrable. All commercial bays have been taken but there are some car bays still available.

Please apply to the parish clerk if you would like to buy a permit by emailing clerk@beer.eastdevon.gov.uk. Similarly, if you are interested in a parking bay at The Meadows apply to the clerk.

It was also reported that more members are needed to sit on the Mariners Hall Committee. If there are any organisations or clubs in the village that are not represented on the committee but would like to be, could they please speak to chairman Di Trewick.

■ DOG fouling on Beer beach is still a major issue for the village, the parish council have said.

Despite only three crimes reported in February, the council said last month that there is still a problem with people who were unable or unwilling to clear up after their dog.

The council is appealing for any information concerning actual dog fouling cases, which will be immediately forwarded to the EDDC Dog Warden and PC Stephen Speariett for action.

■ BEER Parish Council is looking for local residents to bring parking-related issues to the forefront of their attention.

The council is keen to receive feedback from local residents and existing permit holders about the proposed arrangements for parking at the Townsend site.

For further information or if you are interested in a parking permit, contact the parish clerk on clerk.beerparishcouncil@gmail.com

Committed Beer resident invited to jubilee service

By Laura Goldsbury Noy
laura@pemedial.co.uk

A MUCH-loved Beer resident has been given the honour of attending the Lord Lieutenant of Devon's Special Service for the Queen's Diamond Jubilee.

"Unsung hero" Gayle Chapple will attend the special service on behalf of the parish to commemorate the royal celebration at Exeter Cathedral on May 27th.

The parish council nominated Mrs Chapple (pictured right) for her devotion to organising this year's village festivities as a long-serving member of the local community.

Mrs Chapple said: "I'm really happy to be nominated as the unsung hero of the village and excited to go on behalf of the parish."

"As the main organiser of this year's jubilee celebrations, I know it will be an exciting time for our village and although the plans have been kept simple, I think it will be a good weekend for all.

"The week will begin with a street party following the success of our royal wedding party last year and we welcome everyone from the village as well as any visitors who would like to join us."

Beer's diamond jubilee celebrations will begin with a street party in the village on Sunday, June 3rd from 4pm until 6pm with a picnic or 'bring a plate to share' theme and decorations and tables through the centre of Beer.

From 6pm until 8pm the village will be entertained by a steel band and from 8pm until 10pm well-known band The Barry's will be performing with dancing in the street.

On Monday, June 4th, Beer Luggers Club will be holding a special ju-Seaton cyclists get ready for summer!

AXE Valley Pedallers, based in Seaton, have been digging out their bikes from the back of the shed and making plans for summer 2012.

Plans are being made for mountain bikers to visit Chamonix and for the racers to climb Mont Ventoux – one of the hardest climbs in the Tour de France – in a few weeks time.

Closer to home, the Friday Flyers are planning a ride along the cycle path from Studland to Poole, one of the flattest rides in Dorset. Meanwhile, Thursday evening rides are building up with the lighter evenings and there are now three different rides for cyclists of different abilities each week, all ending at the pub.

All are welcome to meet at the King's Arms, Fore Street, at 6.30pm on Thursdays to join a ride.

One of the first rides of the summer season took place on Sunday, when a group rode from Ottery St Mary to Otterton Mill, and then on to Exmouth along the cycle path where they enjoyed a picnic on the seafront before a return journey.

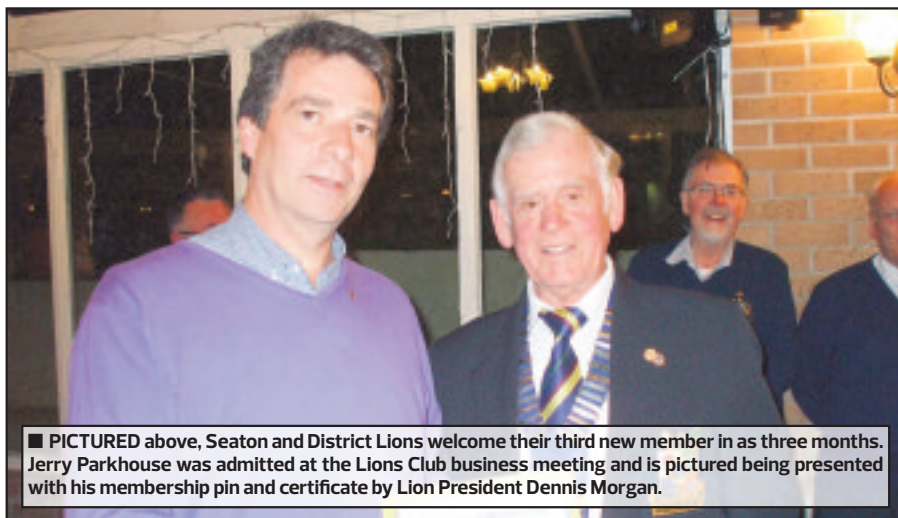

Details of all the Axe Valley Pedallers rides how to join are available at www.axevalleypedallers.org.uk

Late Easter fun for Colyford children

CHILDREN enjoyed a late Easter celebration at St Michael's Chapel of Ease in Colyford.

The bad weather failed to dampen the party spirit, as about 25 children and their parents joined in the afternoon of fun.

Celebrations started with an Easter egg hunt

Party-goers then moved inside the church for a sing-a-long and a chance

'World in Motion' at Musbury

PUPILS from Musbury Primary School recently celebrated National Science and Engineering Week with a day packed full of fun activities.

The theme this year was "Our World in Motion", with the infant and junior children working together to design transport systems that use renewable energy sources, assembling human skeletons and working in groups to locate and illustrate body parts on life-size drawings of themselves.

In the afternoon the pupils worked in pairs to answer quiz questions drawn from all aspects of science and engineering.

BOLTS celebrate a second salon!

BOLTS hairdressing are celebrating the success of their second salon in Honiton that opened its doors four weeks ago. "The business got off to a flying start," says Mandy, "it was much needed for Honiton". Following on from their highly successful hair and beauty salon in Axminster, salon owner Mandy Klampfer decided to take the plunge and open a second business. "It's always been something that I have wanted to do, it was just a case of finding a premises big enough and in a good location". When the opportunity arose to take on part of The Carlton Inn in Honiton the decision for Mandy was an easy one to make. "It has a special connection, as my husband's family owned the well known restaurant many years ago, it seemed like fate that it became available!"

Mandy teamed up with architect Michael Drake who helped with the salon design and provided some great ideas and inspiration. "It was all in the planning" says Mandy "the end result is really amazing, Honiton now have a high class city salon, it was worth the wait!"

BOLTS hairdressing pride themselves on technical excellence, attention to detail and outstanding customer service. They aim to exceed client expectations and deliver on every level, making a trip to the hairdressers more than just a haircut! YOUR LETTER COULD WIN £10 VOUCHER to spend at Archway Bookshop, Axminster

Terrible youth?

■ IN response to the irresponsible young people letter in Pulman's View, edition of April 10th, I am sad they feel our youth are a threat.

I firmly believe we live in a jewel of an area and Axminster is a safe caring town. I can remember a time when our older folk were not so distrusting of youth. Shame it no longer seems to be so.

I am uncertain what leafy suburb of London the writer grew up in or if it was pre-1960s, but certainly in the 30 plus years I grew up there, not many parts of London were as quiet and safe as dear Axminster.

I would gladly stroll through Axminster in the early hours but would not consider it in many parts of our big cities. Certainly reading between the lines you seem to advocate zero tolerance on our youngsters?

Well that's fine so long as it goes across the board. The police regularly check for the safety and integrity of our older drivers. The majority of our young drivers are far too careful due to the ridiculously high insurance premiums they are forced to pay.

Axminster I'm afraid is not a retirement village there are families here.

After all it is those self-same youngsters are being murdered weekly in places like Afghanistan for our safety.

Do you ever wonder how many just from the Axe Valley have joined up? The youth of today – not so terrible.

Gull photo reminds us that they're creatures

■ IT was good of you to print a picture of a gull to accompany the letter in Pulman's View, edition of April 3rd, from Mr Bowers calling for gulls to be culled.

Perhaps the picture will remind the gull-haters that these birds are living creatures and not just 'things' to be got rid of because deemed a nuisance by some people.

If your correspondent took the trouble to find out, they would learn that none of the irritations mentioned would stand up as a health or safety matter, and thus qualify for a license from DEFRA to take action against gulls, their nests or eggs, as they are protected by law.

Instead of whipping up hysteria in the local press, why do these people not put their complaint to an authority which has power to speak and act on the subject.

Local councils have no power other than to say what is unlawful, and to give advice to keep gull-nuisance to a minimum. EDDC produce a free leaflet on the subject.

Unlike human beings, wild creatures including gulls only eat enough to stay alive, and food is therefore a matter of real urgency.

They have cleverly taken advantage of the overeating and eating-outside habits of human beings, and the vast amount of waste in bins or landfill sites, and therefore nest within easy reach. At nesting time, of course their behaviour is aggressive, as they battle for territory and protect their homes and eggs and young.

There is a lot, preventatively, that can be done to reduce the nuisance, for example gull-proofing roofs, as many responsible citizens do, but well before nesting time.

There are experts to call upon for this work. Unfortunately, it is usually the case that the vocal complainers just want someone to take the problem away from them, for free, and even do the killing for them.

Well, thank goodness, since we are talking about living creatures, most people at least try to understand and do what they can.

Human activity has caused this problem, and, as the species with the most advanced brains, it falls upon us to act with compassion and intelligence, and not revenge.

It's not the gulls' fault.

STAR LETTER

£10 Archway Bookshop vouchers are on their way to your door...

Appreciation for introduction

■ A RATHER belated thank you for the £10 voucher.

I was quite surprised to be a star letter winner with such a short note. A second thank you for the introduction, via this, to Archway Books, Axminster. What a super shop.

Being fairly new to Seaton and Axminster I hadn't been in before.

I bought a lovely book of old photos of the area.

Now another note for the paper.

I do agree with the writer on the need for optimism and an end to gloom about the future of Seaton.

But just one observation about the smaller shops – please could they manage better opening hours?

I realise it may be difficult to staff a small business throughout the normal shopping hours but it is disheartening to go into town and find that only the supermarkets and Mr Byrne Jones are open.

Too many doors labelled 'closed' too often and one stops trying.

Care service in operation

■ WITHOUT wishing to dampen the welcome given to the opening of Axminster's Our Charity Shop which will be used by ARC to continue to fund a grief and bereavement counselling service, I would point out that the Charity Togs in South Street, run entirely by volunteers, has been funding the Axminster Care Service for 25 years.

It provides transport for hospital and treatment appointments and grants to schools, colleges and churches as well as many other requests for charitable funding.

Furthermore Charity Togs has been providing financial support for an ARC counsellor over a number of years. Our volunteers wish the ARC project every success but hope that public support for Charity Togs continues to allow us to provide the services that have been valued in this community over the years.

Well done on 'new' paper

■ THANK you so much for your coverage of our West Window saga in last week's Pulman's View.

Feniton Church of England Primary School New adventure playground order placed

FENITON Primary School has been working hard for new adventure playground equipment and the school is pleased to announce that its order was placed at the end of last month.

Children have taken part in various fundraising events, with the most recent event being a sponsored assault course that took place before the Easter break and raised over £1,000.

Thanks to support from local businesses, parents and governors the school has been able to save money and make the target figure achievable.

Colin Butler, head-teacher at Feniton Primary School, said: "On March 17th a group of governors and parents spent a day doing the groundwork. A huge thanks to all who helped, especially Mark Olliff and Jon Oldroyd (the two builders who gave their expertise and equipment), Phillip Gibbins for the tractor and trailer and C Plant Hire, Fenny Bridges, for the donation of the digger.

"You may have noticed the team managed to do some tidying and sorting outside as well.

The significant financial saving made by this work has now made the adventure playground financially possible and the full governing body agreed to temporarily cover the shortfall in funds until the remaining money can be raised."

The school will continue to fundraise and anyone who would like to donate towards the worthy cause, can do so by sending a cheque, payable to Feniton C of E Primary School PTA, to Feniton Primary School, Station Road, Feniton EX14 3EA.

The Manor House

THE Manor House, a grade II listed building, is a residential home for 15 elderly in Seaton, East Devon. The home is a short walk from the town centre and seafront.

The proprietors live on the premises which they feel helps to ensure that high standards are maintained. The home has recently undergone an unannounced inspection by our regulators, the Care Quality Commission (CQC) and has been awarded a 3 star rating demonstrating excellent standards. The Manor House has a cheerful homely atmosphere. Visitors often remark on how they are made to feel welcome at all times. There are well-trained staff on duty day and night. The Manor House has a small garden at the front and a courtyard garden at the back with a fish pond, bird feeders and often the resident dog and cat.

Our aims are to provide high standards of care, promote independence and to enable residents to live life as they choose. Residents are encouraged to follow their chosen pursuits and we provide a variety of entertainment such as quizzes & games. There are trips out around town and to the seafront and trips out in the charabanc. An activities/exercise organiser visits once a week. We have frequent visits from musical entertainers. Residents are encouraged to follow their chosen religious beliefs and a clergyman gives a communion service once a month. We always encourage residents to become involved in local events such as exhibitions at the town hall, sea front fetes and the carnival. We have a visiting library service. It is our policy to provide fresh high quality food from local providers. We cater for special diets such as vegetarian or diabetic etc...

We have fifteen single rooms, all fitted with a wash basin. Nine of the rooms also have an en-suite toilet. Residents are encouraged to personalise their rooms with their own belongings including small items of furniture if they wish. Each room is fitted with a Nurse Call system.

In order to ensure that the placement is suitable, prospective clients are encouraged to visit the home with their relatives prior to admission. The proprietors will also visit the prospective resident at their present accommodation. The first month after a resident is admitted to the home is a trial period to see if the resident is happy and to ensure we can provide the level of care required.

On admission a care plan will be made with the involvement of the resident and their relatives - this emphasizes the resident's potential to manage their own lives as independently as possible and to exercise their freedom of choice. Care plans are reviewed monthly or whenever there is a change in resident's care needs.

Fees vary depending upon the level of care required and whether the room has ensuite facilities. Fees include all care and accommodation costs, food, drink, heating, lighting and laundry. They do not cover the costs of newspapers, magazines, hair-dressing and dry cleaning.

All at Manor House including residents Miss Nellie Crouch and Mrs Nora Goodanew (pictured) enjoyed watching these chicks hatch over the Easter Weekend.

Pulman's View from the churches

With NIGEL SPELLER

AS forecast the proposed Anglican Covenant has not received sufficient support in English Dioceses (although Exeter Diocesan Synod voted in favour) to be considered further by the present General Synod.

New ways of working together will be explored.

More news of Anglican Bishops, this time in Parliament — the Committee on House of Lords reform is now agreeing to propose that 12 bishops remain as members.

At the recent Palm Sunday services in Devon Churches some 15,000 Palm Crosses, sent from the Diocese of Cyprus and the Gulf, were distributed to parishioners — a generous donation went in return.

Across East Devon all reports indicate that the Easter festival was well supported and celebrated in our churches. The Archbishop of Canterbury gave his final Easter address before his retirement in 2013, in Canterbury Cathedral, and took the opportunity of launching an attack on the downgrading of religious education in schools and reflected that the climate was changing, recognising that religion cannot be blamed for everything.

In Rome Pope Benedict XVI celebrated Mass for 100,000 people-giving greetings in 65 languages.

Anglican parishes turn their thoughts now to annual church meetings and elections to office for the ensuing year. This year also sees the licensing of the next Archdeacon of Exeter, the Revd Christopher Fletcher which will be at the cathedral on Saturday, April 28th at 3pm. Earlier in the month the Bishop of Cyprus and the Gulf, from one of the linked dioceses with Exeter, will celebrate Holy Communion in the Lady Chapel of Exeter Cathedral on Saturday, April 21st at 10.45am.

Liz Lynn, from Axminster, concludes this week: "Growing evidence locally of the effects of the national economic slow down prompted Churches Together in Axminster to invite representatives of the LETS group in Bridport to come and speak to us.

"The group, which wants to grow its membership in Axminster, operates a service where goods and services are bartered and no money changes hands. More information is available at the Arts Café in Axminster. The local LETS contact is Chris Lang on 01297 442003."

Talk around the world

CLUBS IN FOCUS

OVER 300 years ago it could take three years; Michael Palin did it in 80 days and now a satellite can do it in an hour or so.

John Barclay, speaker at Axminster Probud Club on April 3rd, elected to go round the world in six months but with no flying.

Why did he decide to do that? Well, it turns out that he likes walking between two points, that is, without returning to base each time.

When he retired it seemed a good idea to extend this concept to its logical conclusion.

Starting with a pre-booked trip on the Queen Mary 2 to Fort Lauderdale all future travel was to be arranged on site. Quoting from his book he presented his listeners with an hilarious scene of amazing luxury and over-the-top attention.

Crossing the southern states of America around the Gulf of Mexico mainly by bus he arrived in Mexico. His policy of not booking ahead led to problems in finding a hotel but, one being found, he was given the key to his room. On opening the door it was immediately obvious that the room was already occupied by a couple engaged in an unusual activity; fortunately the next room was empty.

Mugged in Panama

John was mugged in Panama before voyaging through the canal on a British freighter en route to Tahiti and on to New Zealand where he stayed for six days before taking a three day voyage on a German container ship to Sydney. In Melbourne he visited the Rialto Tower despite his phobia of vertical drops, spending much of his time in plucking up the courage to step onto the outside observation platform.

Travel across the Nullabor Plain along the longest length of straight railway track in the world took him to Perth from where he went on to Kuala Lumpur by sea. An epic bus journey through Vietnam where the driver determined to outpace a screaming ambulance took him to Hanoi from where he travelled by train and bus through China.

Having only learnt the two words for 'toilet' and 'internet', he was forced to communicate by gestures and body language.

The last part of his journey took him through Kazakhstan, Ukraine and the northern European countries to complete his linear trip to end up where he started — platform 16 at Waterloo.

His book Surface Male was widely quoted in his talk and led to a good many sales.

The Axminster Probud Club, for retired and semi-retired business and professional men, meets on the first Tuesday of each month at the Kilminster Cafe, Bistro and Motel.

Silence for past member, Dorothy

PRESIDENT Denise Gates welcomed everyone to Axmouth Women's Institute. A minute's silence was held for a past member, Dorothy Long, who died while on holiday in Spain.

The birthday dinner was discussed and members voted to have a meal at the Dolphin Hotel in Beer. An outing to Cadhay Manor in Ottery St Mary on May 31st was arranged.

The speaker was Colin Pady, a local farmer and historian, who gave an excellent and informative talk about a trip he made to the Himalayas with his wife Val to raise money for Action Aid. After an initial talk members enjoyed wonderful slides ranging from the streets of Delhi to the mountains in the foothills of the Himalayas, dropping in on the Dalai KLama for a blessing en route.

Along the route to the foothills the party encountered loose stones and steep gorges. The sun was very hot during the day but the nights were bitterly cold. Camp sites were set up by the sherpas each evening along with toilet and food tents as well as a kitchen.

After the meal everyone sat around exchanging stories and singing songs over a hot cup of cocoa with rum to warm them up for the night ahead.

Each Himalayan village was self-sufficient. Terraces had been built on the hillside to grow crops such as potatoes, barley and rye. Several herds of goats were passed being herded by young goat herders and the occasional mule train passed by with bells ringing in the distance warning of their approach.

There were wonderful panoramic views from the mountains, and smells of the pine from the pine forest. There was an abundance of anemones, primulas and rhododendrons. Some villages owned their own mill for grinding maize to be made into chapattis while some houses had looms for weaving clothes. Animals often slept under the houses. The trip ended at the Taj Mahal, India.

The flower of the month competition was won by Lorraine Hipkins with Olive Owen second and Peggy Redgrave third. The Abominable Snowman competition was won by Val Trendall with Denise Gates second.

There will be no meeting in April.

WI seeks members

THE latest meeting of Musbury and Whitford Women's Institute (WI) took place on Wednesday, April 10th at Whitford Village Hall.

The speaker was Mac McClaren, and the subject was Drug Smuggling. This proved to be very interesting, if depressing. He explained that the drug trade is about all the major crimes, including terrorism, around the world.

The vote of thanks was given by Maggie followed by a break, business and then the birthday posies were given out.

The members have now decided on the local charity of the year, which will be Axe Vale and District Conservation Society (AVDCS) based in Seaton at the wetlands centre.

The club is looking for people to stand for committee as three current members are standing down.

The ladies are also looking for helpers with ideas for the Musbury Flower Festival, Axe Vale Show and the competition for the group meeting to be held in Beer.

Next month is the annual meeting and plant stall at Whitford Village Hall on Tuesday, May 8th starting at 7.30pm. All are welcome.

Send your club reports to the editor, Pulman's View, Unit 3 St Michael's Business Centre, Church Street, Lyme Regis, Dorset, DT7 3DB or email edit@pemedial.co.uk.

Fascinating owl viewing

NO sign as yet of the first swallows here at Tatworth, but several immigrants have been seen in the Colyton area, as Graham Stephens from that region has told me.

In fact, he spotted a group of five heading towards Colyton, while Rosemary Tilbury emails to tell me that on March 26th she saw two house martins inspecting nests under the eaves of her cottage. She has also heard chiffchaffs and blackcaps and has spotted an array of butterflies, including a brimstones, peacocks, red admirals, orange tips, holly blues and a small tortoiseshell.

I, too, have spotted orange tips (the male has the orange tip to its wings, the female has grey tips) inspecting the numerous flower heads of lady's smock or cuckoo plant upon which it lays its eggs.

This butterfly, incidentally, is avoided by birds as its body tastes bitter and the orange wing tips of the patrolling male act as a warning to any would-be predatory birds. Lady's smock, incidentally, is also called the cuckoo plant as its flowering was once considered to coincide with the arrival of the first cuckoos. Now, sadly, these migrants have become increasingly rare and I can only recall hearing one last year.

Mention of the dead "polecat" or polecat-ferret which I recently encountered, drew a response from a reader, Karen Maddox, of Honiton, who told me that her late father worked as infestation officer for the then Ministry of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food (MAFF) and in the course of his work polecat-ferrets occasionally turned up.

It appeared that ferreters were introducing wild polecat blood into their domesticated stock in order to produce more vigour. However, these first generation kits invariably proved as vicious as their wild sire or dam and were usually discarded.

I suspect the animal I found was indeed a polecat cross but why it had died remains a mystery. I wonder whether any readers have come across these animals?

I have been told that pure-bred polecats have been introduced and investigation via the web reveals that a considerable number of road casualty polecats have been encountered in Somerset, Dorset and Devon over the past decade or so.

Certainly, genuine wild polecats have expanded their range from Wales into England and there is little reason to suppose they will not continue to establish themselves throughout the country. It is believed that there are now far more polecats in England than in Wales.

The genuine wild polecat carries a distinctive white mask on its head, a feature which was absent from the animal I found. It was, incidentally, once called the foulmart, an allusion to the disgusting smell it could produce when cornered or under attack. The pine marten, on the other hand, was known as the sweetmart.

Once again, Dorset Wildlife Trust (DWT) RaptorCam is in operation at the Lorton Meadows Nature Reserve and I understand that a pair of barn owls have returned to their nest box, while tawny owls are also nesting and now probably feeding young.

The barn owl eggs were due to hatch last week. I have just had a peek and I can see one barn owl adult standing and I suspect that chicks are behind her. It's fascinating viewing and you can watch the birds online at www.dorsetwildlifetrust.org.uk/owl.

Alternatively, you can visit the reserve and on a quiet evening you might be lucky enough to see one of these barn owls hunting for voles or mice across the meadows.

Meanwhile, the young owlets should remain in and around the nesting box until July.

They will be in full plumage at around 10 weeks old but will still remain in their nesting box site for several weeks before dispersing.

Radio drama comes to life on stage

MOST would describe the late Dylan Thomas as a genius. Some would qualify 'genius' with the adjective, 'flawed'.

In any event I was delighted to hear that the Shute Theatre and Arts Guild was presenting his work, 'Under Milk Wood' at St Michael's Church, Shute and looked forward to the evening with relish.

I was, too, interested to see just how Elizabeth Miller and her team would deal with this tale of a day in the life of that Welsh fishing village Llaeggub, and how they would condense both characters and action into the confines of the space available. I have to say that the way they did so, first surprised me, and then caused considerable gratification on my part.

I was not aware of the fact that the play had been written primarily for the radio, for I had only ever watched the stage play, and was intrigued to find on entry that the venue was festooned with microphones as it had been decided to 'return to roots' so to speak; to present the production as it had been originally.

The recording light then went on and the cast, without defining costumes, formed up as they would have done in the days of steam radio, and away we went!

The play had been running for scant minutes only when I realised that the absence of the visual aspects, such as costume and movement, enabled me to concentrate more fully on the superb script and I am sure that I absorbed more of Thomas's alliteration and general descriptive powers than I had done in former productions of the work. The next hour and a half passed quickly as I sat, riveted.

Of course, acting for the radio only is a very different skill from appearing on the stage. The cast was led by narrators David Clarke and Ernest Fox and they, together with the immobile and soliloquising blind Captain Cat (Derek House), were the cement that held the production together on stage, and much was asked of them.

A great deal was demanded of the eight remaining participants also (Judith Evans, Victoria Pearce, Katherine Sharp, Heather White, Simon Ford, Nigel Freathy, Mark Hills and Ray Seaward). They each found themselves playing a veritable plethora of cameo parts, some of them very divergent. This could well have led to total confusion had their many and various contributions not been supremely well introduced by the narrators.

A production of this nature relies almost completely on clear diction and impeccable timing by the cast, and this one had them both in profusion, from Polly Garter to Organ Morgan, and from Coronation Street to Donkey Down. In fact the play flowed with never a hitch and rarely have two hours passed as quickly, or more enjoyably. STAGS would have been absolutely delighted with the outcome of this one.

There was one negative aspect as far as I was concerned, albeit only a temporary one. Some 20 minutes into the play, and with Dylan Thomas's descriptive genius in full flow, I felt like giving up this journalism lark, (if such it can be called) on the grounds of inadequacy.

Common sense then came to my aid as I reasoned that local football sides do not stop playing because their performances do not compare with those of West Ham, or even with those of Man United!

Production: director - Elisabeth Miller; studio manager - Bob Evans; floor managers - Hilary Briers, Katie Forster; sound recording and microphones - Tony Hansell; lighting and business manager - David Baxendale; publicity design - Simon Ford; front of house - Elizabeth Stonex and team photographs - Kristina Evans.

Blues boom legend at The Square + Compass

THE Square and Compass has pulled off a real coup for this Sunday (April 22nd) - SAVOY BROWN featuring KIM SIMMONDS are playing their only South West gig.

This in itself is one of only three concerts the band are playing in the UK between flying from the USA and an extensive European tour.

One of the earliest of British blues bands, Savoy Brown, with founder guitarist Kim Simmonds at the helm, helped launch the 1967 UK blues boom that brought blues music back to the USA invigorating the style forever.

In the process, the band became part of the framework that launched the rock and roll music of the 1970s.

Their influence now stretches into modern rock as we know it today.

After the successful run of the early to mid 70s, Kim moved operations to the USA - where they are still based - and continued making the kind of records he wanted to with a succession of line-ups. Records as diverse as the acoustic blues 'Slow Train' to the hard-hitting 'Rock And Roll Warriors' appeared. All were eagerly accepted by the fans.

Now touring to promote the bands new album 'Voodoo Moon' this date is bound to sell out - advance booking is advised.

Phone the Square and Compass on 01823 480467 to book by credit card or visit in person to pick up your tickets. Advance price is £15 - don't miss out!

BLUES / Americana artist BILL SHEFFIELD is also touring the UK in May with local gigs in Seaton, Exeter, Dorchester and Ilminster.

The big man from Atlanta, Georgia is again accompanied by The Producers' bassist Dave Saunders. Those lucky enough to have seen Bill before know what a great singer/guitarist and powerful performer he is.

With his huge voice and stunning slide guitar this man puts his heart and soul into every show. He was guitar legend Roy Buchanan's vocalist, touring with Roy throughout the United States and featuring on Roy's Polydor album 'In the Beginning'.

Combining a finger picking style that rolls over you like a freight train with his electrifying and dazzling guitar work.

There is no denying it, Bill Sheffield - is a master of the Blues and a true master of the guitar.

With ex John Mayall's Bluesbreaker BUDDY WHITTINGTON and guitar legend ANDY FAIRWEATHER LOW also playing at the Square and Compass also in May, there is something for everyone!

Honiton slimmers slim for summer and raise money for children

WITH over half of us saying we'd enjoy our summer holiday more if we were happier with our body* a local slimming expert has revealed that April is the perfect time to kick off those weight loss plans.

Sharon Grove, Slimming World Consultant in Honiton, is holding a sixweek 'Slimmer Summerthon' after a survey found that more than half of us spoil our summer holidays before we've even packed our bikinis because we're self-conscious and worried about wearing a swimming costume in public or getting into the pool in front of others.

Statistics show that over half of us will try to lose weight for the big summer holiday this year but somehow the motivation flags and we end up disappointedly packing the same supersize shorts as last year.

Slimmers who join the campaign are being encouraged to get sponsored to lose weight and, for the duration of the six weeks, Slimming world will donate £1/1c for every 1lb group members lose as part of the slimathon - with all funds going to the NSPCC.

Sharon is inviting slimmers to bring friends and family along and get together to kick start their weight loss in time for sunnier weather.

"We're encouraging people to get sponsored because we know that commitment and motivation are super-boosted once you go public with your intentions," says Sharon.

"That's why we've come up with a Slimmer Summerthon, running for six weeks from April 10th.

"We're asking members to tell us where they'd like to be in six weeks' time and, whether that's half a stone lighter or a lot more confident, we'll be working together as a group to give them all the support they need to get there.

"It's possible to lose a stone or more over six weeks. So this summer we won't need to get to the beach feeling like we need to hide in the shade - we'll have all the confidence and motivation we need to get summer off to a great start!

"And with the added incentive of raising money for such a good cause we're hoping that the campaign will help to give people in Honiton who would like to lose weight for summer the extra motivation they need to make a fresh start.

"Slimming World's great

Food Optimising eating plan really is Extra Easy and members lose weight easily without ever going hungry.

"They still enjoy all their favourite meals (spaghetti bolognese, fish and chips, curry - you name it), all based on hearty healthy Slimming World recipes.

"Then each week in group we share more great food ideas and spur each other on for the next week.

"We've also got loads of ideas about how to get more active without having to pull on any Lycra or pay a fortune in gym fees.

"However much weight you have to lose you can make a big difference in six weeks by making long lasting changes that will transform your body, your health and your whole outlook and by raising money for the NSPCC by getting sponsored."

The Honiton Slimming World groups meets every Tuesday at 5:30pm and 7:30pm and every Wednesday at 9:30am and 11:30am at the Honiton Baptist Church Hall.

Anyone who would like more information on the Slimmer Summerthon can call Sharonon 0140441513 or 07963 337178.

Senegalese Kora maestro Diabel Cissokho returns to his roots with four-piece band SENEGALESE musician Diabel Cissokho is part of the great line of Cissokho griots. Growing up in Dakar, surrounded by a rich musical heritage and a family of musicians, Diabel began playing a number of traditional instruments. However, Diabel's affinity with the kora was clear from an early age.

Diabel's musical pedigree is exceptional. International tours with his family's band Bannaya led to a long stint as Baaba Maal's kora player, as well as with acclaimed musicians such as Kandia Kouyate, Pee Wee Ellis, Nuru Kane, Daby Balde, Omar Pene and Abdou Diop. Now well established in the UK, Diabel's virtuosic talent, his "resonant voice and rocking kora style" (Songlines), have been welcomed everywhere from WOMAD and Glastonbury to London's Barbican, where he performed alongside Femi Kuti, Cheikh Lo and Manu Dibango.

Diabel's success with bluesman Ramon Goose cemented his reputation as a versatile musician, able to effortlessly cross cultures. Their album Mansana Blues – released on the DixieFrog record label – was lauded as "a flavoursome mix of slide guitar, mellow kora and undulating Mandinka rhythms" (fRoots) which "delivers moments of steamy pleasure" (Songlines).

A 2010 European tour culminated in the DNA Culture Project with Ramon, Robert Plant guitarist Justin Adams, Gambian riti player Juldeh Camara and bassist Julian Joseph at Dakar's renowned venue Just4You.

Diabel's own four-piece band features a fantastic group of UK-based musicians. Their debut album, recorded in the UK and Dakar and featuring members of Diabel's own family, is due to be released in 2012.

With music that draws on Diabel's rich musical heritage, blending beautiful Mandinkan melodies with an upbeat West African groove, Diabel's band guarantees to bring audiences to their feet!

Diabel Cissokho will play at the Marine Theatre on Friday, April 27th, with the band onstage at 8pm. Tickets cost £12 (£10 concessions) and are available online at www.marinetheatre.com or by calling the box office on 01297 442138.

Lucy Ward at Jurassic Folk

LUCY Ward descended upon Jurassic Folk at Seaton on April 4th.

It is easy to understand why she won the Horizon Award at this year's BBC Radio 2 Folk Awards by listening to her debut album 'Adelphi Has To Fly,' but that doesn't prepare you for the shimmering bright blue hair and high-energy performance on the stage.

Lucy doesn't sing songs – she lives them before your eyes, be they traditional unaccompanied ballads, humorous ditties or serious self-penned songs beautifully accompanied on guitar.

Her voice was magnificent, despite having a streaming cold, so good in fact that you don't notice it; all you hear is the song, which is surely the sign of a true artist.

A memorable night, at which support spots were provided by Peter Arnold, who rarely gets a chance to sing on singers' nights, and Susanah Billeter, aided and abetted by Gwyneth Lorimer and Jerry Cahill who provided a most enjoyable set of songs.

To the future, the next singers' night is tomorrow (Wednesday, April 18th) at 7:45pm, and as always admission is free and performers of all genres are most welcome, but safest to call first.

The next guest night is on Wednesday, May 2nd at 8:15pm, at which the main guest is Sunjay Brayne, a young bluesy style guitarist and singer at the start of his career.

It all happens at the Grove Nite Club, Seaton; for more information and tickets, call 01297 20064 or visit the web site at www.eastdevonfolk.org

Frank Property cuts the cost of selling!

Frank now offers a standard fee of 0.95%*

Following the success of Frank Property's new fixed price rentals service – with no hidden charges, they thought in these tough economic times they'd cut the cost of selling, too.

Importantly, Frank Property will not be compromising on their high standards and service levels. So now you really can get more for less.

- The highly competitive fee Frank is now offering is typically only offered by online agents. Frank believes it is incredibly important to put a face to the name; always priding themselves on being available for their customers, providing them with an excellent service and a highly competitive fee.

- Frank is currently not charging VAT on their fees.

- Frank does not tie you in to a long contract; confident with their service they provide, they do not ask customers to sign a long three month contract; but instead only require 48 hours notice.

- Their office is open 7 days a week: this is very important in a coastal town as some buyers come from outside the area and visit at the weekend.

- All property viewings, even out of office hours, are accompanied by a member of the Frank team. They take time with the buyer in your home, providing them with that all important feedback

- For every property Frank Property markets, they will provide you with all the marketing tools you need, both printed and online; a high quality sales brochure which includes great photography and, most importantly, a floor plan. It's a fact, buyers love floor plans!

- An internet presence for your property is very important – a big investment has gone into their website and as a result it's getting huge visitor numbers each month. Social media presence is a given and lots of interesting, relevant topics for buyers and sellers are featured on facebook, twitter and the like. They are also attached to most of the important property internet portals.

- It doesn't end there, once Frank has 'sale agreed' your property they are then with you all the way through to completion; ensuring regular communication – and regular updates. Of all their sales since opening they have consistently achieved an average of 93% of the asking price.

- Put Frank Property to the test - give them a call or pop into the office and arrange your free no obligation appointment. They cover all areas; including Seaton and Beer, Colyton and Colyford and Lyme Regis, Uplyme and all the surrounding villages.

*Subject to a minimum fee of £1250, and sole agency.

SPOTLIGHT ON MY SERVICE

Eden Garden Developments

EDEN Garden Developments make finding a contractor simple by providing for all clients' Garden Design, Construction & Care requirements, large and small locally. The Design & Build unit of A1 Environmental Services, offers a friendly, professional, integrated service.

The Seaton, Devon base principally covers a 30 mile radius including Lyme Bay, the Otter Valley, the Blackdown Hills and the Vale of Taunton. Installing all types of Fencing, Gates and Decking, Walling and Patios, Eden offers a complete landscaping service including Lawns, Horticulture and Aquatics, either as a package or in affordable stages.

An example is illustrated where the client was seeking an oriental flavour to his garden. This was achieved within budget by populating the planting scheme with rocks, miniature temples and pagodas. In fact "cost leadership" is at the forefront of the business whilst keeping quality and the principles of design paramount (also illustrated is an arbour with an Eastern influence).

Business founder, designer and artisan craftsman Norman Brown holds an MSC. in Environmental Planning & Management and has contributed to books, periodicals and the gardening press. Further information can be obtained by calling 01297 23596 (mobile 07977 415446) or visiting the web pages at a1-environmental.com

New 'venture edition' Mazda2 on sale now

- Mazda2 Venture Edition boasts premium style and high-tech equipment from £12,995 (OTR)
- TomTom navigation, integrated Bluetooth® and climate control air-conditioning as standard
- Just 1,500 examples of this special edition will be produced
- Low-rate 5.9% APR finance available until 31 July 2012

TO celebrate the arrival of spring, Mazda has introduced a special edition of its best-selling model in the UK – the Mazda2 'Venture Edition', priced from only £12,995 (OTR).

The new Mazda2 Venture Edition is based on the five-door hatchback Tamura model with advanced technology and a premium cabin ambience. It features several additional items of equipment and a choice of six special exterior colours, including two unique to this version, Dolphin Grey and Burgundy Red.

Bringing a fresh level of sophistication to Mazda's small car line-up, inside and out, the Venture Edition features 16-inch gunmetal alloy wheels, sports styling kit, front fog lamps, privacy glass and a rear bumper sports trim. Inside, there is a Sanyo TomTom navigation system with a 5.8-inch touch screen, integrated Bluetooth® hands-free kit, climate control air-conditioning and electric rear windows.

"The availability of the new Mazda2 Venture Edition, with its unique combination of advanced technology, sports styling, a premium interior and great added value, will attract new consumers to our brand," comments Peter Allibon, Sales Director, Mazda UK. "In its latest form, Mazda2 combines superior ride comfort, superb handling and quality with the stylish, spirited and fun-to-drive attributes for which Mazda is renowned. No surprise that it is the best-selling model in our range."

The Mazda2 Venture Edition costs only £1,000 above the Tamura donor-car, representing remarkable value. Just 1,500 examples of the Venture Edition will be made, finished in the two unique colours – Dolphin Grey Mica and Burgundy Red Mica and four from the regular Mazda2 range – Crystal White Pearlescent, Brilliant Black, Aquatic Blue Mica and True Red.

Specifications for the Mazda2 line-up are extremely generous and the Venture Edition model benefits from the standard equipment level of the Tamura which includes: front, side and curtain airbags, remote central locking and dead locks, driver's seat height adjustment, leather steering wheel with audio controls, CD radio with Auxiliary jack and four speakers, 60/40 split folding rear seats and a Thatcham Category 1 alarm.

Owing to its lightweight construction, the Mazda2 combines spirited performance and remarkable fuel economy with outstanding handling and driving dynamics, for a truly spirited sporty drive in the best tradition of the Japanese brand. A stiff bodyshell, softer mountings for the rear trailing arms and re-tuned rear dampers give the 2012 Mazda2 superior road holding and ride comfort.

The Mazda2 Venture Edition, which is powered by an 84ps, 1.3-litre MZR petrol engine, accelerates to 62mph in 13.6 seconds, returns 56.5mpg (combined cycle) and has a CO2 emission rating of just 115g/km. This model also qualifies for zero road tax (first year rate).

Division One (East)

A STRONG looking Sidmouth Town side travelled to the Recreation ground to play Newton Abbot Spurs, a team that would provide a tough test.

Spurs started the game at a furious pace aided by the atrocious weather that saw thunder, lightning, hailstones and no let-up in rain throughout the entire 90 minutes.

Slowly Town were getting a foothold in the game and created a few chances that could of seen them take the lead.

But just before the interval Spurs broke quickly to punish the Vikings and take the lead.

This was a huge blow for the visitors as they had stood firm and deserved to go in level.

Worse was to follow as sloppy play straight from the kick-off saw Sidmouth surrender possession to the Spurs' centre-forward who gleefully lifted the ball over 'keeper Lee Ashford to make the half-time score 2-0.

The hosts went further ahead 10 minutes after the restart but Sidmouth, to their credit, never gave up and pulled a goal back through Nathan Brace who finished from close range.

With Sidmouth pouring forward gaps were beginning to show at the back but fortunately for Town Ashford was showing his quality handling in the difficult conditions and the game finished 3-1.

After the game Sidmouth manager Paddy Thomas said: "From being fairly pleased going in all-square, two minutes of madness saw us chasing the game against a decent side.

"We have to keep ourselves in games, stay in touch and battle away. We have three away games left to play, two of which are against sides lying in the top three, so if we don't prepare physically and mentally then we will take a hiding."

Ottery St Mary had a day to forget as they were thrashed 6-0 by visiting Exmouth Axminster.

After a Saturday off Axminster Town were due to return to action with a trip to Exeter Civil Service last night (Monday).

Midweek round up

A SHOCK 3-2 defeat for title favourites St Martins at Newtown on Wednesday evening has given Seaton Town renewed hopes of clinging on to the premier division top spot that they have occupied for so much of the season.

Meanwhile Honiton Town edged past relegated Newton Reserves 2-1 to reinforce their sixth place in the Division Two table.

Axminster Town Reserves ended their time at Sector Lane with the Reserve team beating neighbours Offwell Rangers 3-2 on Wednesday. Dan Turner (2) and Matt Hower were the last Tigers to score on the 91-year-old ground.

Down in Division Five Axmouth United suffered their biggest defeat of the season as they were crushed 7-1 at Hatherleigh Town Reserves. Matt Ellis scored for the Hammers.

Colaton Raleigh earned promotion from Division Three with a 1-1 draw at Offwell Rangers.

Saturday round-up

A BEN Ede goal finally broke the resistance of plucky East Budleigh and kept alive Seaton Town's title hopes whilst main rivals St Martins came from behind to beat Alphington 3-1.

In Division One a goal from player-manager Mark Kingdon couldn't save Feniton as they went down 2-1 in the top-of-the-table clash with Exmouth Amateurs who are making an instant return to the top division.

Honiton Town's fine second-half of the season form in Division Two continued with a 3-2 win at Halwill. Sam Farmer, Dan Broom and an own goal secured the victory.

Not such good news from Colyton who were beaten 3-0 on their own turf by Westex Rovers.

Sidmouth Reserves remain in third place after a hard earned 3-1 win over a resilient Newtown in their first home game for eight weeks.

Having beaten the basement team 5-3 away last week the Vikings were surprised to see a completely different team opposing them and one that that caused plenty of problems, thankfully this lifted the hosts and they created plenty of chances.

The quality of ball that was hitting the visitors area from out wide was outstanding but it took an own goal to give the Vikings the lead at half time.

The second-half was a similar story with Sidmouth playing football and Newtown hitting it long, but the Vikings had by now got to grips with this tactic and, after a long spell of pressure, they deservedly scored a second through Kev Dorman.

Newtown got it back to 2-1 and the game was in the balance for 10 minutes until Kev Dorman got his second for the final score of 3-1.

Manager Nick Ogden was pleased with the result, he said: "I'm surprised they are bottom because they certainly are better than that but in the end we did enough to win and that's six on the spin now.

"Once Mark Badcock and Man-of-the-Match Matt Leggett got on top of their forwards that gave us the opportunity to put pressure on their defence.

"Robbie Powell did very well too in clearing a lot up behind our back line.

"All-in-all we have to be happy with our form since Christmas and for us to be were we are now is credit to the players and testament to what a bit of hard graft will do for you.

"We are on target to hit 49 points and that's what we wanted 11 games ago, so it would be nice to finish with two more wins starting against one of our rivals Colyton next week hopefully in front of a large crowd and our club sponsors".

A Joe Berry goal from a free-kick proved to be no more than a consolation as Axmouth United lost 3-1 at Heavitree.

The Hammers were in action 24 hours later when a Charlie Clarke goal booked a place in the semi-finals of the Galesworthy Cup.

"I'm really pleased for the lads, we have been hit with injuries and absences for some time but had players returning just at the right time and hopefully we can take the next step and make the final," said Axmouth manager Laurie Forino.

Down in Division Six Honiton Reserves were beaten 2-0 at home by champions-elect Chumleigh.

FATHER and daughter AVR's Graham and Paula Newton recently ran the Horner Water 11 on Exmoor writes Dave Mutter.

Paula said that the beautiful wooded countryside almost made up for the five mile killer hill at the start of the 10 mile race.

While admiring a herd of deer in the distance Paula suddenly noticed that they had been joined by Bill the dog, apparently Graham had got into a conversation with one of the marshals at the water station and had offered to take her dog Bill along for some exercise. Graham, Paula and Bill all crossed the line together in 1hr 57 minutes.

Mike and Sue Venn ran the Easter Bunny 10k at Yeovilton Air Base. They were both pleased with their times; Mike (who will be 71 this week) finished in 63:48, and Sue 59:00. This was great for Sue as the last time she finished within the hour was the late 1990s.

If you have watched the Grizzly and Sport Relief events and have been inspired to start running this summer why not contact your local running club?

Axe Valley Runners have a special "Absolute Beginners" group which runs on Monday and Friday evenings. No more waiting until its dark and struggling along by yourself, come and join in with a fun, social, friendly, helpful and encouraging running group. bowlsHoniton

THE Devon Lady's County Finals were held at the Exonia Indoor Bowling Club on Saturday where Honiton's Julie Grant was in action against South Hams champion Diane Smith.

Julie, who has played well the whole season, was always in control of a match in which neither player had managed to score more than two shots, then at 18 ends, Diane took the only three of the game and her supporters hoped for a rally in fortunes but it was not to be and Julie won 21-13.

In the Pairs final Honiton's Berry Maynard and Rita Barwick had a very much tougher match against the Plymouth based Pam Lee and Val Lander. Finding themselves down 17-7 at 15 ends they proceeded to win the next 5 ends to pull the game back to 17-16.

On the last end Pam held a shot right on the jack. Rita managed to move it and stay for shot to level the match but with her last bowl Val edged Rita's bowl out to take a much relieved one and win by 2 shots.

In the other finals, the local Sidmouth team of Pat Pritchard, Pat Harvie and Jill Bishop played the Plymouth trio Shirley Bartrop, Jean Cornwall and Linda Jenkins.

Jill's crew played well and at just 9 ends were 14-2 up. Plymouth did make a two end rally picking up 3 and 2, but that was all they were allowed and Sidmouth won 22-8.

Honiton are promoted

BY KEITH JENKIN

HONITON needed two points from their last two games to ensure promotion into the Western Counties West Division.

HONITON 21 TEIGNMOUTH 27

HONITON would probably ended the day thinking of the words of Napoleon Bonaparte who said, "I know he's brilliant, but is he lucky?"

In any event, although they lost to their nearest challengers for the division's runners-up spot, they gathered enough points en route to ensure their own promotion, and to, furthermore, deny Teignmouth a place. The final score line gained Honiton a losing bonus point and limited their opponents to four and Honiton now lie six points clear in the division's second place, with but just five points remaining on offer.

Honiton chose to play up the slope initially, and really gave Teignmouth too much rope in the first half, at the end of which they trailed 24-7. Their opponents had scored three tries during the first forty minutes, had converted all three and kicked a penalty goal for good measure. Honiton had replied with a try by centre Barrett, converted by Channing, but had left themselves with a real mountain to climb.

In fact they did get themselves back into the contest and had chances to win it. Lock forward Guilbert reduced the arrears before being binned for some felony or other. Channing converted this score and scored a try himself that he converted also. Teignmouth did manage to kick a second-half penalty goal but, with the score standing at 21-27 with some 15 minutes left for play, it looked as if Honiton might well do it.

Chances went begging in the final quarter however. The ball was knocked on with the line beckoning. Overlaps were not converted and, in the end, Teignmouth held on for the win.

HONITON 2nd 12 IVYBRIDGE 25

IT was the home side who took the lead after 10 minutes in this Merit Table encounter, when Ben Dobson took advantage of an interception to touch down.

The very useful visitors side settled however and, after equalising with an unconverted try of their own, took the lead by kicking a penalty goal. They scored a converted try too before the halfway stage to lead 15-5.
Honiton for their part did have their moments in attack and perhaps were not afforded the rub of the green on occasion. A third try, although it remained unconverted, put Ivybridge in control early in the second half; although Honiton went on to mount some sustained pressure, and were rewarded when Dobson galloped in for his second try of the afternoon. He converted it himself, but Ivybridge scored what was the bonus point try to seal the result.

HONITON JUNIORS

HONITON U 12s 14

WELLINGTON U 14s 54

Honiton's lack of rugby during the last few weeks certainly showed. They started slowly and although they scored tries through Joseph Gibbs and Joel Wilson, one of which was converted by Ben Phillips, and the other by Jack Katene, they could not gain a foothold in the contest in spite of the efforts of Men of the Match Ben Phillips and Giles Richards.

HONITON MUSKETEERS 26

CHARD U 11s 5

In their first game of the morning Honiton notched a good win, scoring tries by Olive, Woolacott (two), and Wright. Woolacott and Wright (two) kicked the conversions.

HONITON MUSKETEERS 14

MACHEN U 11s 7

This was a much closer affair with Honiton coming out on top thanks to tries by Man of the Match, Wright, and Woolacott. Wright converted both.

HONITON U 10s 7 CHARD U 10s 6

This was a very close encounter with Honiton just edging the result with tries from James Ashby, George Tomkins, Charles Corr, Jack Todd, Lewis Gleed and Matthew Webb.

HONITON U 8s 11 MACHEN U 8s 7

Strong running by both Charlie Shepherd and Cody Floyd set the stage for Joshua Giles to score a five of tries. Joe Evans chipped in with three. Luke Matthews got a couple and Osian Owen one to give Honiton this narrow win.

HONITON U 8s 7 CHARD U 8s 8

Honiton narrowly failed to make it a double on the day. Although Joe Evans touched down five times in this one, and Osian Owen twice, they lost by a single try.

HONITON U 8s 4 CHARD U 8s 9

The Honiton B side came second to a useful Chard outfit in their first game, despite scoring tries by Felix Williams (two), Byron Spence and Dafydd Platt.

HONITON U 8s 10 MACHEN U 8s 10

A draw was the fairest result after a free flowing high scoring encounter. Honiton's tries came from River Liesk (three), Tim Goody (two), Cameron King (two), Felix Robinson, Felix Williams and Byron Spence.

CAMBORNE 50 SIDMOUTH 23

FINAL score lines can, on occasion be deceptive, and this was one such. Sidmouth competed well and were in contention for over an hour before falling away at the Camborne Rec.

In fact they did not get off to the best of starts, dropping the initial drop out. Camborne took full advantage, went on to the attack and, after several phases, their number eight crashed over. Sidmouth responded however with an unconverted try of their own. Having moved the ball to the right, they switched and James Powell touched down.

The home side regained the lead after their number seven had shown good pace and power when running from the back of a lineup. This try was converted but the contest then settled down, with two penalty goals kicked by Tom Whelan, bringing his side back into the contest by the half hour.

Camborne certainly had the better of the final ten minutes of the half, scoring two tries during that time, one by their hooker and the other by their blind side flanker. They converted one of them, and led 24-11 at the halfway stage.

It was essential that Sidmouth scored next and they did so through number eight Richardson, and converted by Whelan.

They were now really back in the mix at 24-18 but any optimism was short lived and Camborne scored an unconverted try wide on the left.

Although behind, Sidmouth would have considered both a four try bonus point and a losing bonus point at this stage, but it was not to be. Camborne cut loose in the final 10 minutes, scoring three tries to move out of sight.

Sidmouth did have the final say when Jack Pyne barged over from a lineup close in.

PREVIEW

AS usual the rugby season ends with a whimper rather than with a bang. Both local clubs have their final league outings on Saturday next, and both should emerge winners.

Congratulations to HONITON for, although losing on Saturday last, they still gathered enough points to ensure themselves a promotion place, and they will play Western Counties (West) League rugby next season.

They travel to TORRINGTON and will be wanting to end their season on a positive I think that they will do so for their opponents have not troubled many this season, and are relegation bound.

SIDMOUTH take on CHOSEN HILL FORMER PUPILS at the Blackmore, and their opponents are now mathematically certain to be relegated. Sidmouth won the earlier fixture comfortably enough and I think that they will do so again.

As to the second sides, Honiton seconds have a pretty hard game on their hands with the visit of Brixham thirds. Their opponents are not such a tough proposition on the road as they are at home however, and Honiton do certainly have a chance in this one.

Sidmouth seconds certainly have an easier task on hand when they visit Tiverton seconds, while Sidmouth thirds take on South Molton seconds.

Fixtures 21st April

Honiton v Torrington (away); Honiton 2nd v Brixham 3rd; Sidmouth v Chosen Hill Former Pupils; Sidmouth 2nd v Tiverton 2nd (away); Sidmouth 3rd v South Molton 2nd.

Millwey Rise suffer penalty kick shoot-out heartache

Two goal advantage blown away

Millwey Rise 2 Morley Rangers 2

(aet – Morley won 3-1 on pens)

MILLWEY Rise appeared to heading for their maiden county cup triumph as they led Morley Sports 2-0 in Thursday's Devon Intermediate Cup Final under the floodlights at Newton Abbott FC.

Nathan Wormesley put Rise ahead in the 22nd minute when he reacted quickest after a first-half 40-yard effort from Michael Knight came back off the crossbar.

Top-scorer Sam Dibbling doubled the lead midway through the second period with his 38th goal of the season.

But the Plymouth-based side battled back with a goal a minute later and snatched a 95th minute leveler in the last minute of injury time to force the extra half-hour.

But the teams couldn't be split and Morley claimed the trophy after winning the penalty shoot-out 3-1.

Millwey player-manager Shane Featherstone, a second-half substitute for striker Terry Emmett, said: "We had a couple of early chances early on, if they had gone in who knows how the game may have gone."

"As it was it was a good game – I thought both goalkeepers were superb."

"We weren't disgraced in any way, the players all did their club proud."

"The lads who took the penalties at least had the guts to step-up and take them."

"It was a great experience for everybody involved."

Millwey took another step towards the Division One title with a point from a 2-2 draw with rivals Shepton Beauchamp at Harry's Field on Saturday.

Mike Knight and Ben Turner scored goals for Rise who still need a maximum of five points from their remaining three matches to lift the trophy.

Up the road at Hawkchurch the Daisy Hutchings cup semi-final ended in defeat for the hosts who went down 2-1 at the hands of Millwey Rise Reserves.

Marc Jenkins and Garry Larcombe scored for the Blues with Jake Bearpark netting the Hawks consolation.

The result was the perfect tonic for Millwey who take on Combe St Nicholas A in the Bill Bailey Cup Final on the wide open spaces of Beaminster's Memorial Ground on Thursday evening (6.15pm ko).

Simon Flint's side will be looking the win the trophy for the first time in the 54 year history.

They could have their hands full – the Saints have been beaten just once in 2012 and are one of the league's form teams.

Captain's quartet lands Founders cup

SINCE its inception in Honiton Golf Club's centenary year in 1996 the Founders Day Trophy has just grown in prestige writes Andy Wagner.

By far the largest cup in the cabinet, its a trophy played for by every section of the club. It provides an opportunity for seniors to meet juniors, ladies and men as the teams are drawn into 4BBB teams with two scores to count.

Captain Paul Dimond proceeded to power through the field to take the Founders Day competition alongside Rob Willey, Alan Pollock and Lady Captain Jackie Seager with 81pts.

In fact so bemused was Paul when he came back to tally the cards that he almost forgot to include Rob Willey's '2' on the 12th leaving the 40 balls to be shared by Rob and John Dickenson, more golf on page 63.
